

I support your decision to fine clear channel. I think we as a country need to take a step back and realize pushing the envelope with riskier programming is not the road we should follow. I support freedom of speech but limitations on public airwaves is fair. Thank you, Chris Thomas